2019 REDS

2019 Volnay 1<sup>er</sup> Cru Les Santenots Domaine du Pavillon: 94

The inklings of the opulence of a fine Volnay are just beginning to show in this perfumed wine. Richness and spice add to the black fruits and youthful acidity in a complex wine that promises plenty of aging. Drink from 2025. CELLAR SELECTION (September 1, 2021)

2019 Vosne-Romanée Domaine du Clos Frantin: 93

A powerfully rich wine from vineyards owned by the Bichot family, this dense wine is packed with impressive tannins that are integrating and filling out. It will age well, so wait to drink until 2024. CELLAR SELECTION (September 1, 2021)

2019 Nuits-Saint-Georges 1<sup>er</sup> Cru Château-Gris: 93

From a small, wholly owned premier cru vineyard, this wine has a good contrast between the smooth red fruits and acidity. The balance is held by touches of wood that are beginning to soften. Drink from 2025. (September 1, 2021)

2019 Beaune Les Epenottes Domaine du Pavillon: 92

This property that lies above the run of Beaune Premier Cru vineyards has produced a full, ripe wine. Generous red-cherry and plum fruits are shot through with young, fresh acidity. Wood-aging flavors are judicious, discreet and softening. Drink from 2024. EDITORS' CHOICE (September 1, 2021)

2019 Fixin 1<sup>er</sup> Cru Clos de la Perrière: 92

From a wholly owned, walled vineyard, this wine offers richness as well as good acidity in its red-cherry fruits. Backed by wood aging, the wine has density and a poise that will allow it to age well. Drink from 2024. (September 1, 2021)

2019 Mercurey En Pierre Milley Domaine Adélie: 90

With layers of intense fruits that are backed by the wood aging, this single-vineyard wine is full, ripe and already offers good potential. The wine's perfumed character balances satisfyingly with the solid structure. Drink the wine from 2023. (September 1, 2021)

2019 Bourgogne Hautes-Côtes de Nuits Les Dames Huguettes: 92

Although young, this wine is also well balanced. Its tannins and generous berry fruits harmonize well, giving a fresh, juicy character and a drier core. Drink the wine from 2022. EDITORS' CHOICE (July 1, 2021)

2019 Bourgogne Côte d'Or Pinot Noir Secret de Famille: 90

With elegant tannins and rich black fruits, this is a ripe, structured wine. It is young, bursting with vitality, acidity and textured fruitiness. Give it a few months and drink this wine from 2022. (July 1, 2021)
